

Ethics in Education Notice

As a school that participates in Florida Department of Education School Choice Scholarship program, and pursuant to the requirements set forth in the 2008 Ethics in Education Act, please be advised that Lake Worth Christian School operates under the following guidelines and laws.

Ethics in Education Act

Senate Bill 1712 (Chapter Law 2008-108), the Ethics in Education Act, became effective July 1, 2008, and impacts certain operational procedures for private schools participating in the McKay and Corporate Tax Credit Scholarship Programs.

The Act amends Section 1002.421, Florida Statutes, related to participating private school accountability, by adding new requirements to the employee screening process. All instructional personnel and school administrators in a position that requires direct contact with students are subject to the new screening standards. The private school accountability statute has also been amended to require private schools to develop standards of ethical conduct for the school's instructional personnel and administrators. Instructional personnel and school administrators are defined by Sections 1012.01(2) and(3), Florida Statutes.

All LWCS employees are certified teachers and teaching within their field of studies.

Employment Screening

1. Participating private schools must disqualify from employment any instructional personnel or school administrator who is convicted of an act listed under Section 1012.315, Florida Statutes.
2. Participating private schools must conduct an employment history check before employing instructional personnel or school administrators in any position that requires direct contact with students.
3. Participating private schools must screen new instructional personnel or school administrators using the two employee screening tools developed by the Department of Education. New instructional personnel or school administrators are those individuals employed after the law became effective on July 1, 2008.

All Lake Worth Christian School administrators, teachers, and staff members and volunteers have been fully screened and background checked pursuant to state law.

Child Abuse Reporting and Employee Misconduct

1. LWCS school prohibits confidentiality agreements with instructional personnel or school administrators who are dismissed, terminated, or resign in lieu of termination due to misconduct that affects the health, safety, or welfare of a student.
2. Child abuse and Employee Misconduct reporting hotline number are posted on teacher's work areas and in the Employee handbook.
3. All LWCS employees have been trained to recognize signs of child abuse, abandonment, and neglect, and have been advised as to their status as mandatory reporters.
4. Primary report contacts at school for any instance or suspected instance of employee misconduct is to our Superintendent Dustin Bowlin; Elementary Principal, Mr. Wesley Davidson or Board President, Mr. Sonny St. Juste.
