Statement of Belief

- The Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired Word of God, the only infallible rule of faith and obedience;
- That there is one God, eternally existent in three persons: God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit;
- That man, created in the image of God, disobeyed, fell from his original righteousness, and became dead in sin;
- That Jesus Christ the incarnate, sinless Son of God was crucified and arose bodily from the dead, so that those who receive Him by faith would have everlasting life;
- That regeneration by the power of the Holy Spirit is absolutely essential for the salvation of lost and sinful man, and that His indwelling enables the Christian to live a godly life;
- We believe in the personal return of Christ to judge the living and the dead;
- We believe in the spiritual unity of believers in our Lord Jesus Christ;
- We believe that the term "marriage" has only one meaning: the uniting of one man and one woman in a single, exclusive union, as delineated in Scripture (Gen 2:18-25);
- We believe that unmarried couples should not cohabit, as God intends intimacy to occur only between a man and a woman who are married to each other. (1 Cor 6:18; 7:2-5; Heb 13:4);
- That God has given parents the responsibility of bringing up their children in the "nurture and admonition of the Lord". Since the accomplishment of this objective is a very complex task, parents look at the school and the church for assistance in reaching this goal. We believe that a consistent and meaningful education will result when the home, the school, and the church are in a partnership agreement on the basic concepts of life. Only as the sum total of all learning is seen in the light of God's Word will the pupil be able to differentiate the truth from error. With the aid of Christian teachers in a Christian environment, we believe these goals will be realized.

To be completed by the family:
